Fall 2018: CIED 5723
Gender and Curriculum

OSU-Tulsa
Tuesday, 4:30-7:10pm

This seminar explores women educators’ contributions to curriculum history and the lived experiences of gender at school to rethink about gender issues in education. This course deepens students’ sociological, autobiographical, and multicultural understanding of gender and curriculum and creates transformative experiences for students’ learning.

Both master’s and doctoral students are welcome!
