Examine the subtle, but pervasive, ways in which language and interaction create, maintain, and contest gender differences. Focus on the social construction of gender through language and the distinct ways in which specific communities of practice inform variations in gender identities. No prerequisites.

Questions? Visit womensstudies.okstate.edu, email Dr. Lu Bailey at lucy.bailey.okstate.edu, or call the Honors College at 405-744-6799.