Professor Jennifer Borland

Examines selected works of art and architecture dating from the inception of Islam in seventh-century Arabia through today, with a focus on cross-cultural exchange and connections to our contemporary world. A major project will be developed around the exhibition The Veil: Visible & Invisible Spaces, in the Gardiner Art Gallery as well as opportunities to work with other artworks in local collections.

Fulfills requirements for Art and Art History majors and minors, and is available for Graduate-level credit.
